Headteacher's news:

I hope this issue of Rufford Park Post finds you well and that you managed to enjoy the half term break.

We have been back into the swing of things here at school and I know that the staff have enjoyed being with the children this week. Holidays can't last forever and the transition back to work can sometimes feel, quite naturally, like a 'jolt' to the system. However, there is absolutely no doubt that it is made so much easier in the job we do - seeing the children's smiling faces and sharing learning experiences certainly lifts the spirits of everyone.

The main highlight of the week took place yesterday. World Book Day has been celebrated in schools across the country for a quarter of a century! The staff enjoyed dressing up as Mr Men and Little Miss characters and the children came dressed in all sorts of wonderful costumes. We had a parade in the hall, Gruffalo Burgers at lunchtime and a book swap which was organised by the Friends Of Rufford Park. Many thanks for the very generous book donations and, of course, the costume support.

Have a good weekend.

This week in assembly:

On Tuesday, Miss Tidey talked to the children about Shrove Tuesday, Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent.

An Online Safety Bulletin a Month

Every month, Rufford Park Post publishes a new piece of online safety advice.
