Headteacher's news:

I hope this issue of Rufford Park Post finds you and your families well.

On Monday, school was closed to the children but the teachers worked in school on curriculum development. Each teacher is responsible for leading a subject and throughout this year, they have been working very hard to ensure that our curriculum is effective in providing the best possible education for every pupil at Rufford Park.

We want all our children to acquire the knowledge, skills and understanding which will enable them to confidently achieve at every stage of their education. We want every pupil to become a Rufford Park LEARNER (ask your child about this).

We want to develop pupil's knowledge and understanding of the world from a local, British and global perspective. We want our pupils to be happy, feel safe and have fun growing up. We want our children to be active citizens who have a voice and can influence. We want our children to enjoy a healthy lifestyle. We want our children to know more and remember more.

I hope that you too share the same aspirations for your child as you play a crucial role in realising this vision. Thank you for your continued support.

It has been another good week because I believe that the delivery of our curriculum and the teaching and learning taking place across school, continues to be of a high standard. Enjoy the weekend and enjoy the sunshine.

This week in assemblies... I talked about 'spring cleaning' and how this time of year is a chance to make a fresh start and clear out things that are unhelpful or unimportant in our lives. Miss Tidey discussed unhelpful behaviours that might have become bad habits and reviewed the school golden rules as well as our zero tolerance behaviours.
